OAKEN BUCKET

The Oaken Bucket Staff wishes to express their deepest appreciation to the persons who have faithfully helped and cooperated with them all this term. We thank Mr. Marvin Bonds of the California Art and Engraving Company; Mr. Carl Sickler of the Goodhue Printing Company; Mr. George Rutan and Jim Fiske of Colman Studio; Audrey Lea, for the designs in the activity section; Bob Eustachy, for the sports cartoons; Max Nathanson and Fred Schachtman for special photographs; and, also those faculty members who so willingly cooperated.

GOOD LUCK TO CLAIR

MISS EUGENIE LEONARD

As seconds run into minutes, and minutes into months and years, the time of our stay at Oakland High School shortens. Now, graduation is the next step, and we, the class of June 1940, must face it. Our high school life has been brought to a close, but the fond memories of it will long linger. Our various studies, classes, and activities taught us a keener knowledge, a wish for greater height in life, and an appreciation for our high school. We owe our greatest debt to Miss Eugenie Leonard and Miss Mary Hauverman. Their ever tireless advice and assistance during these past three years have guided us on the right paths of life many times. Our future lives will be bettered by having known such understanding counselors and friends. To them, it is a privilege and an honor to dedicate this Oaken Bucket. And now, so that we might better remember them and the many other thoughts that will linger in our minds, we publish this book hoping that it will possibly keep closer the time of our lives as high school students, a time of enjoyable minutes.

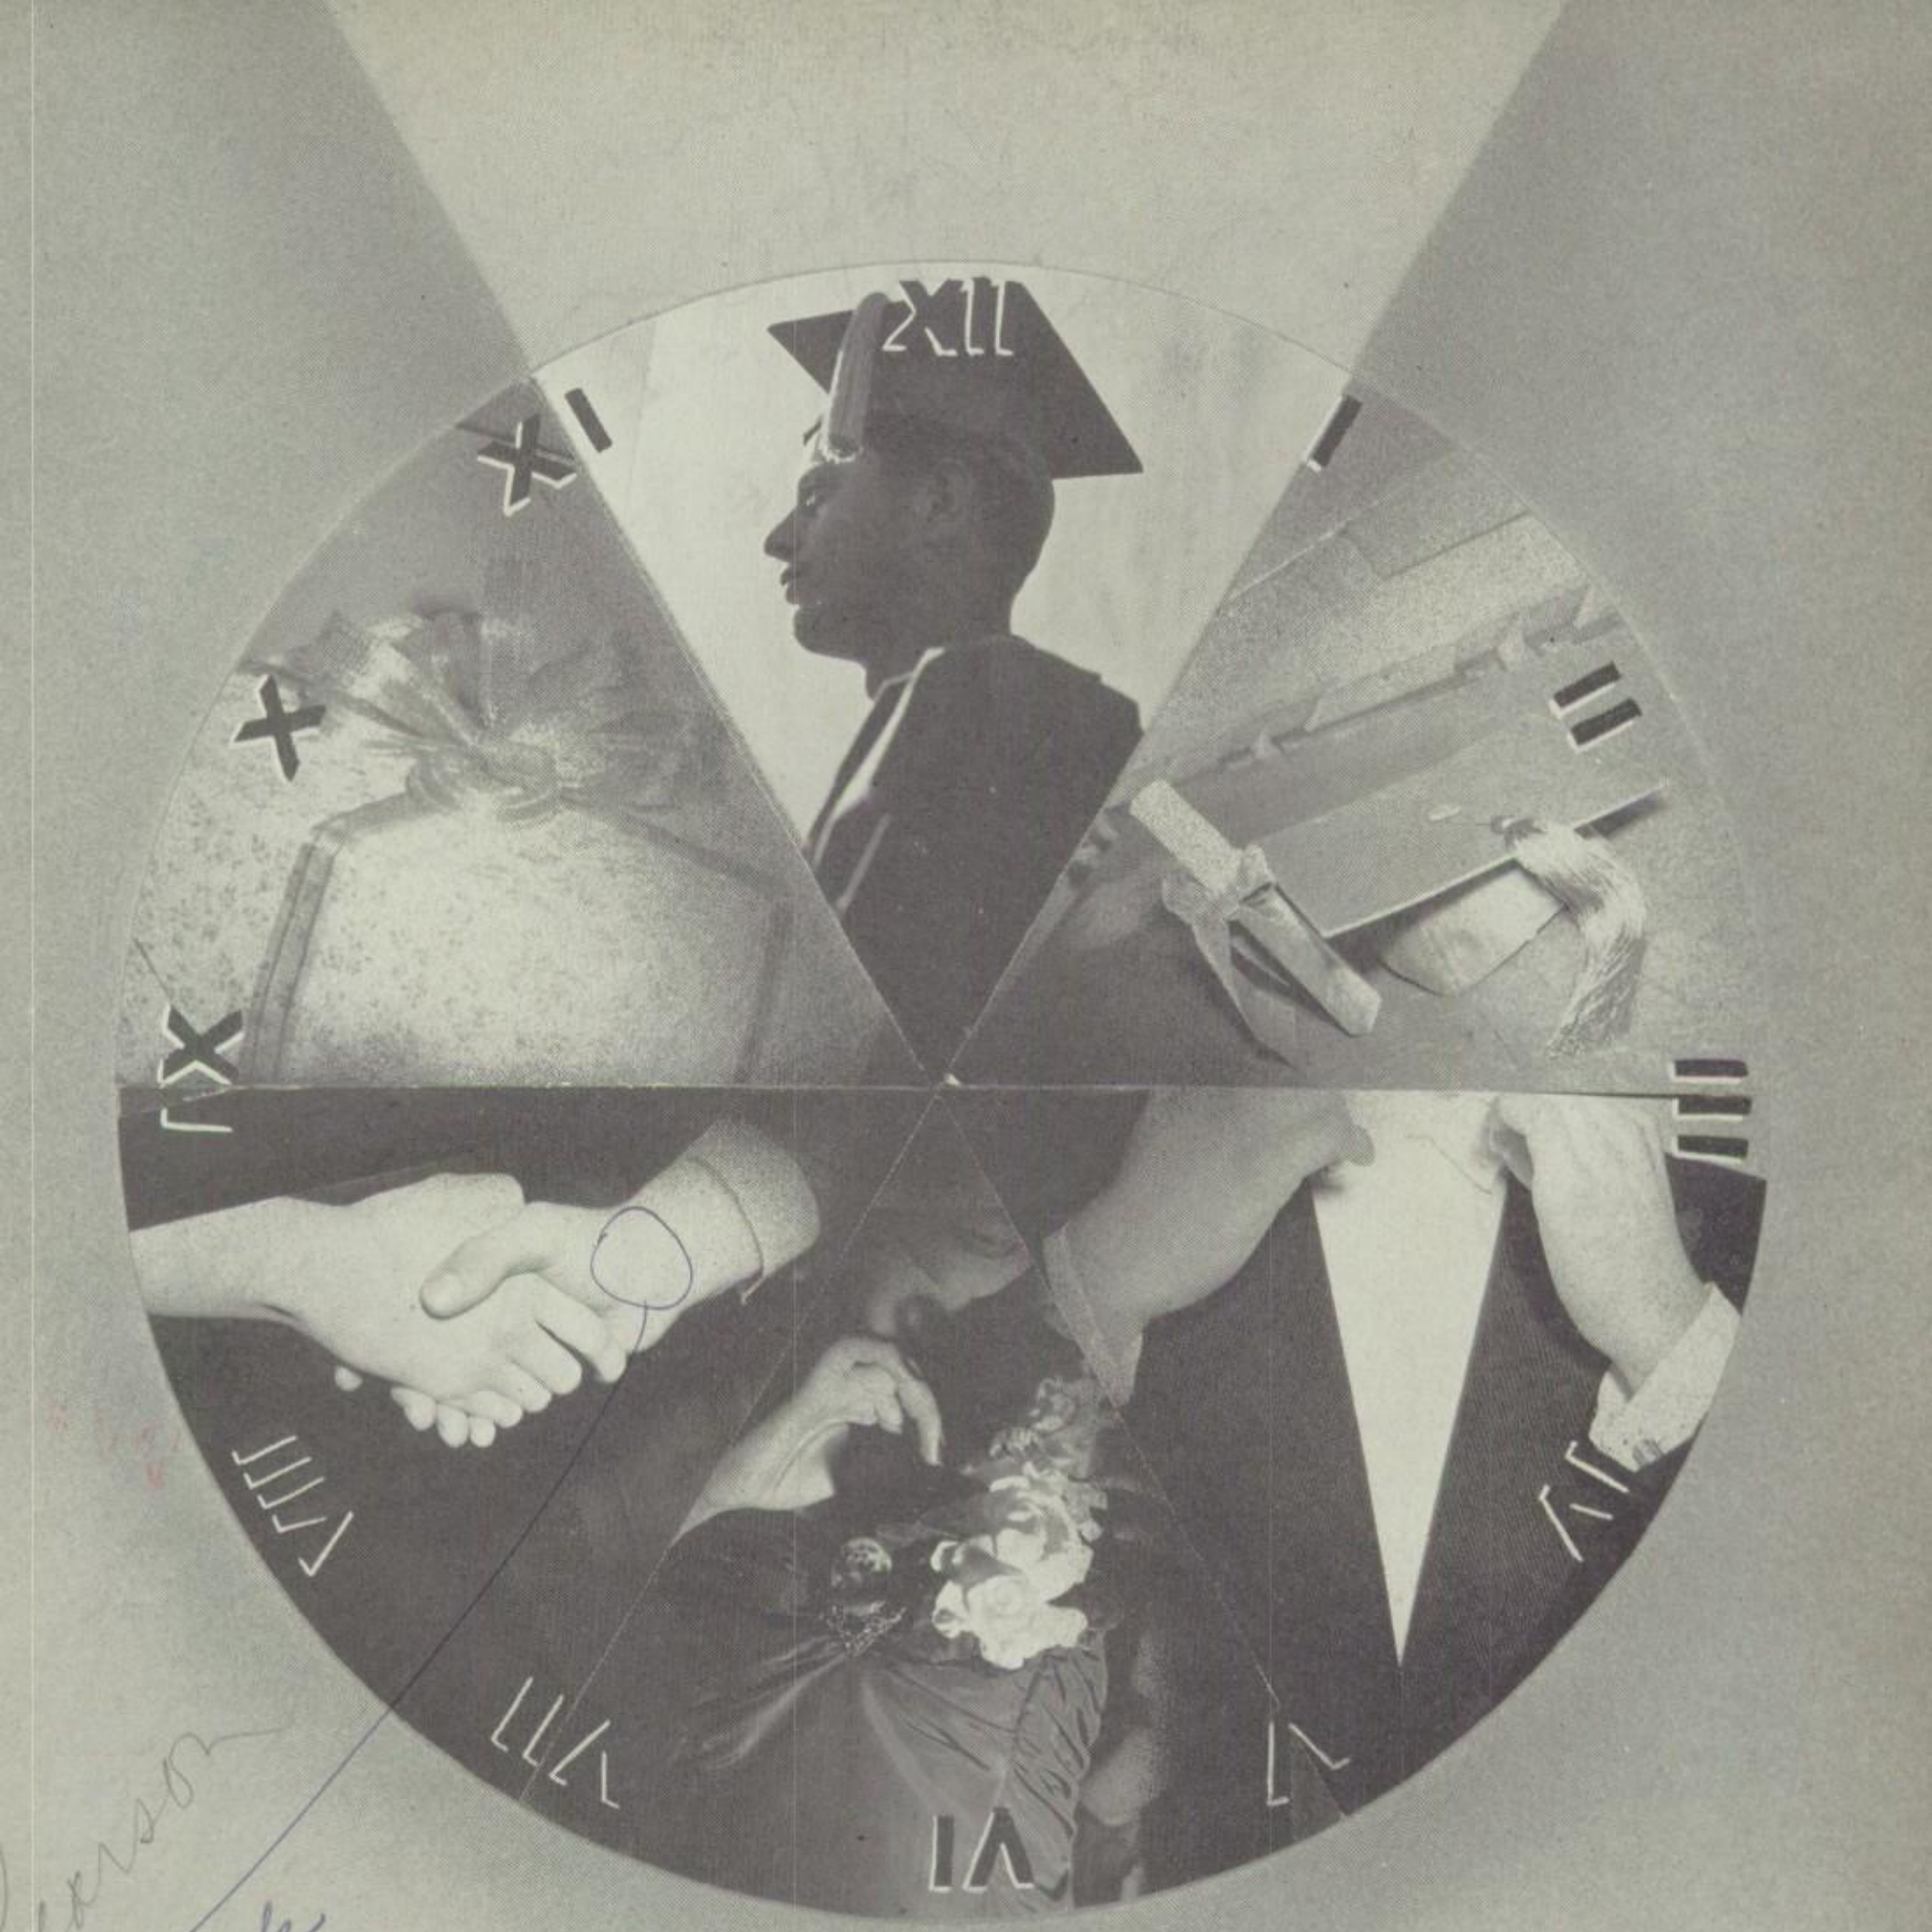
STUDENT CABINET

For the second time in the seventy years of Oakland High School's existence a girl was elected president of the student body. Pictured with President Doris Lind in the center is Dr. L. P. Farris, Principal. The Cabinet, who have worked and cooperated with Doris this term, are pictured in clock-form. Starting the winding clock around in the place of number one is Clint Keeler, Secretary; Barbara Goesch, Commissioner of Girls' Affairs; Jack Gregory, Commissioner of Boys' Athletics; Dick Voight, Commissioner of Entertainment; Audrey Lea, Commissioner of Publicity; Al Gross, Yell Leader; Roy Davis, Stage Manager; Bob Hall, Commissioner of Welfare and Safety; Virginia Gardner, Commissioner of Girls' Athletics; Dick Henderson, Commissioner of Boys' Affairs; Harold Adishian, Commissioner of Publications; and Joe Haley, Commissioner of Finance.



SENIORS

SENIOR OFFICERS

Two sets of groups, each having a part in the various activities, counseled the senior class this term. Ruth Thompson, President of the first half of the term, presided over the Senior Dinner held May 2. At the dinner, of which the theme was Sherwood Frolic, she turned her gavel over to Stan Johnson, President of the second half. The officers under Ruth, at one, and going around clockwise were Bonnie Jones, Vice-President; Ralph McCloskey, Secretary; Milton Kitchel, Treasurer; Burton Markovitz, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Phil Jensen, Yell Leader. Stan, in the place of twelve on the clock, presided over the Senior Picnic, Senior Ball, and the Graduation Exercises. The picnic was held May 20 at Orinda Park. The theme for the Senior Ball, on June 7, was "Gone With the Wind." Graduation exercises, with the seniors in caps and gowns, took place on the evening of June 14. Assisting Stan with the senior activities were Margaret Della Vedowa, starting the clock backwards at eleven, as Vice-President; Bill Heim, Secretary; Bill Herman, Treasurer; Clint Merithew, Sergeant-at-Arms; and Harold Glazier, Yell Leader. In the center are the valedictorians, George Payne and Margaret Della Vedowa.

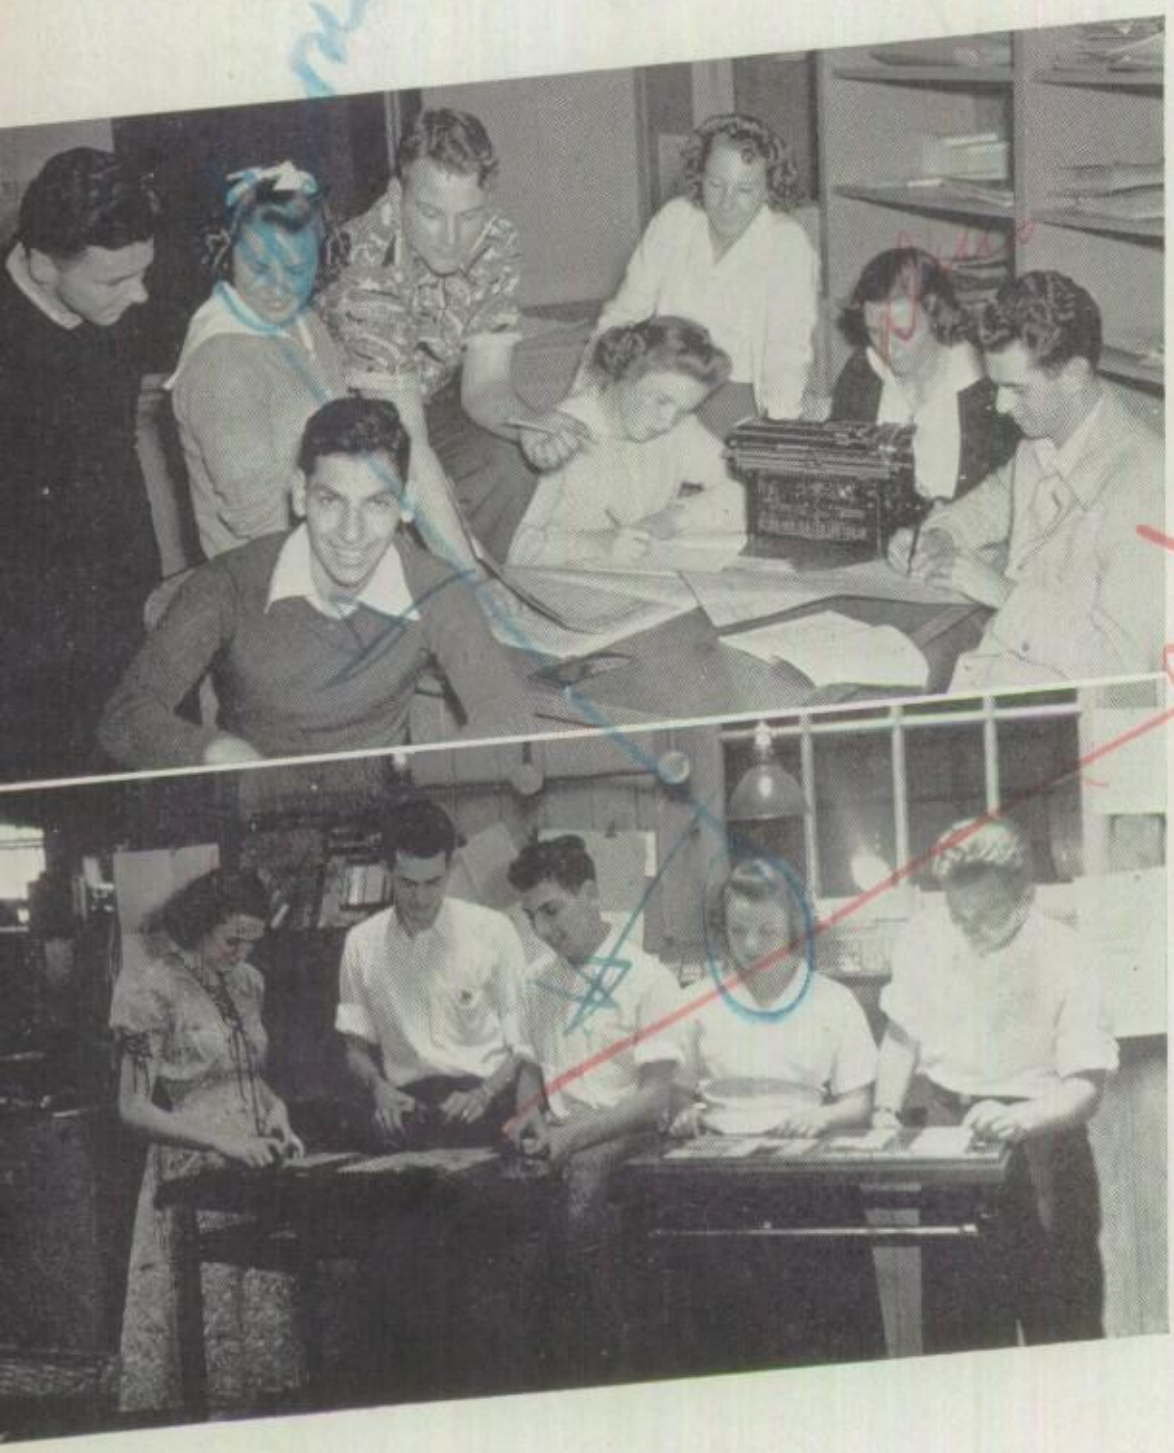
ACTIVITIES

HAROLD ADISHIAN
Editor

WEEKLY AEGIS STAFF



The Weekly Aegis is set up and published each week under the guidance of Harold Adishian, the editor, and Mr. Charles Miles, faculty advisor. The news for the Aegis is gathered by students of the News I and II classes. The type for the pages is set up at McClymonds each Thursday by students working on the staff.

Pictured working in the Aegis office are, from left to right, standing, John Studley, sports editor; Leanore Everson, associate editor; Jim Squire, news editor; and Eileen Sims, exchange editor. Seated left to right are Harold Adishian, editor; Nancy Black, news editor; Doris Miller, feature editor; Ralph Eckles, associate editor. Harold, the editor, is pictured in the upper right-hand corner.

Since the beginning of the term the Oaken Bucket staff has been working steadily to put out the semi-annual senior record book. On the lawn seated from left to right are Carol Farley, picture editor; Margaret Della Vedowa, editor; and Margie Smith, associate editor. Standing in the back from left to right are Phil Jensen, publicity manager; Douglas Ellis, sports editor; and Ray Ogburn, business manager. Upper right, the staff is pictured working in the Aegis office forming plans for the book. In the lower left-hand corner is Margaret, the editor, who has been guided by her faculty advisor, Mr. Charles Miles.

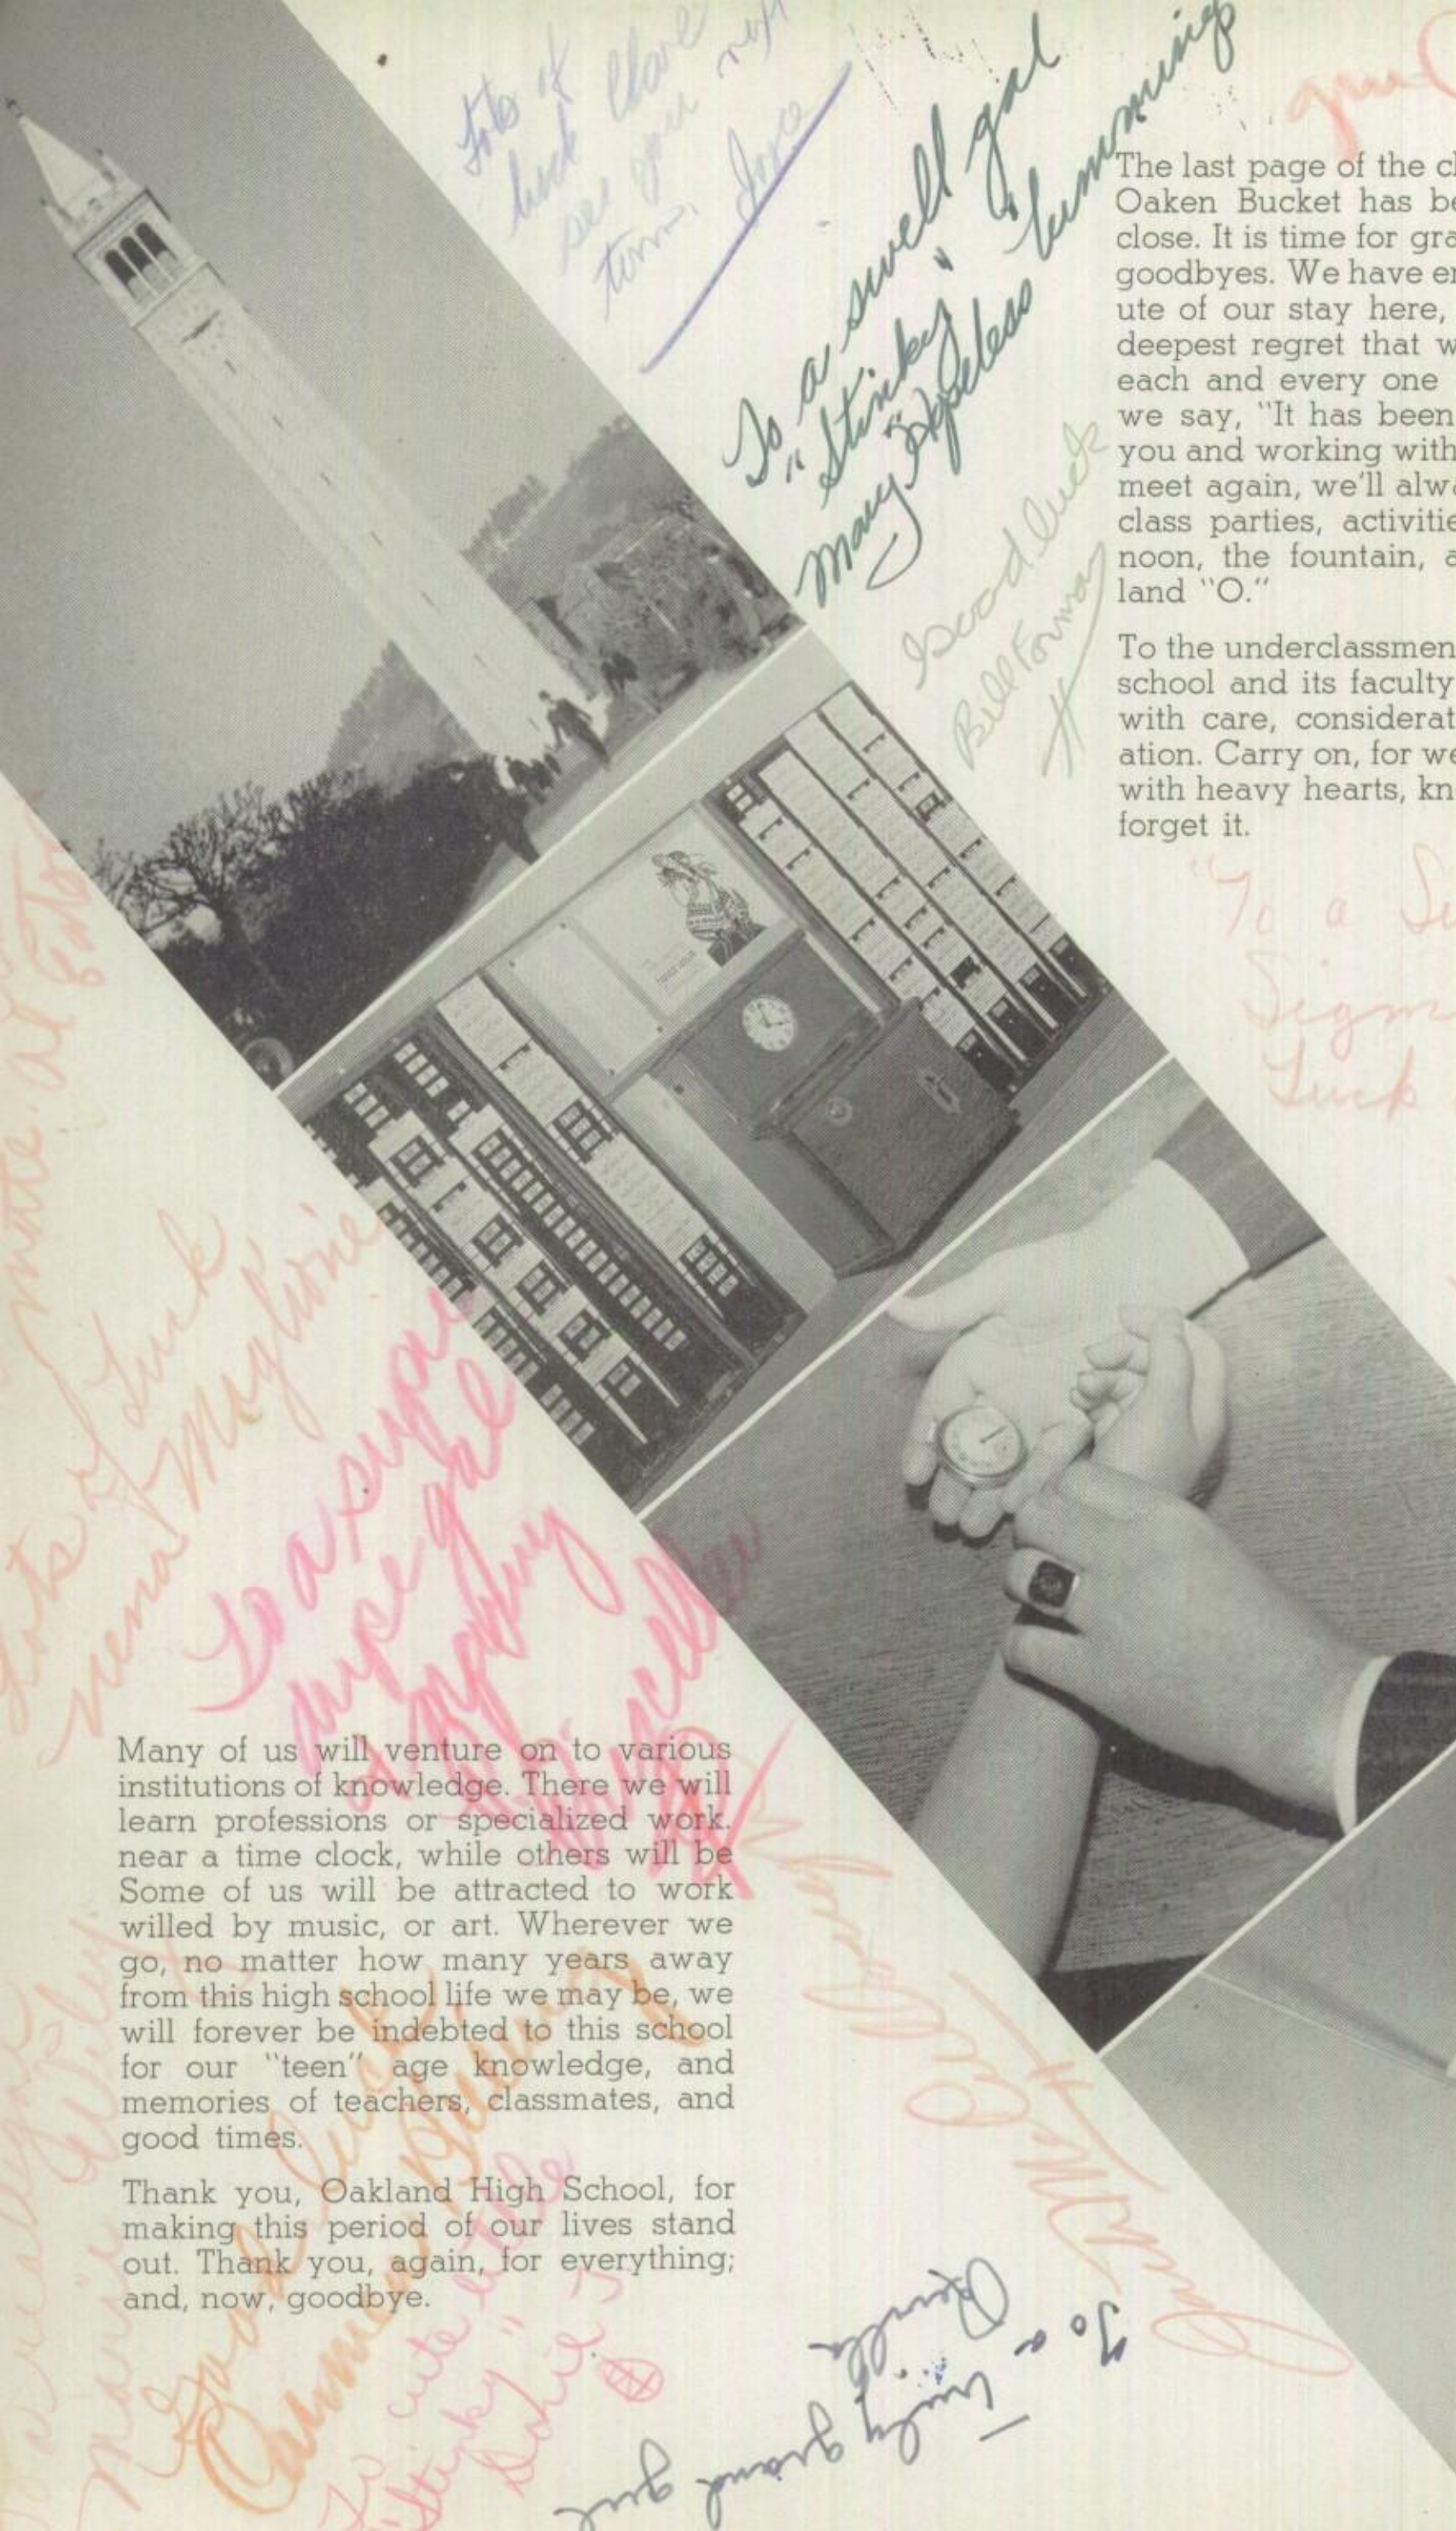
THE SENIOR CLASS OF JUNE, 1940, OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL.

Witnesses:

OAKEN BUCKET STAFF
BILL HEIM
DORIS LIND
RALPH ECKLES



The last page of the class of June 1940's Oaken Bucket has been brought to a close. It is time for graduation—time for goodbyes. We have enjoyed every minute of our stay here, and it is with the deepest regret that we must leave. To each and every one of our classmates we say, "It has been so nice knowing you and working with you." If we never meet again, we'll always remember the class parties, activities, the crowds at noon, the fountain, and the big Oakland "O."

To the underclassmen we turn over this school and its faculty to handle for us, with care, consideration, and appreciation. Carry on, for we leave this school with heavy hearts, knowing we'll never forget it.

Many of us will venture on to various institutions of knowledge. There we will learn professions or specialized work. near a time clock, while others will be Some of us will be attracted to work willed by music, or art. Wherever we go, no matter how many years away from this high school life we may be, we will forever be indebted to this school for our "teen" age knowledge, and memories of teachers, classmates, and good times.

Thank you, Oakland High School, for making this period of our lives stand out. Thank you, again, for everything; and, now, goodbye.
